Is It As Bad As This?

Says Leslie's Weekly: "God has blessed us beyond our deservings. If this nation were half as grateful as it ought to be the overruling power that made its existence possible; that gave us a temperate climate, exhaustless natural resources, millions of acres of fertile land and an indomitable spirit to overcome adverse conditions, it would have more than one Thanksgiving Day each year."

"Its churches would not show such empty pews; the authorities would not find the resources of the police department taxed to suppress cabarets, dance halls and vicious resorts on every side."

"This nation needs a new baptism of faith—faith in its future. It needs hopefulness and helpfulness. It has had enough of unrest, unreason and suspicion."

"The evils from which we suffer are mostly imaginary. They are conjured up by demagogues, yellow journalists and muckrakers. Unscrupulous men seek to control our politics. They are eager for the spoils of office and the craft of our municipalities. Saloon keepers in politics blossom into millionaires and ward politicians into great money lenders."

"Such as these are stirring up popular discontent. Pretending to be the friends of the people, they are trampling on the constitution, tearing down the safeguards erected by our forefathers and creating an atmosphere of insecurity about labor and capital."

"Superficial egotists are supplanting ripened and experienced statesmen; theories are being substituted for well-grounded principles; reason is being dethroned and justice besieged to hold the scales not evenly, but as the mob may dictate."

"How can prosperity continue under such conditions? How can bankers extend their line of credit, manufacturers increase their output and railroads advance wages? Without these how can investors take heart and the people witness a revival of business? Before this can come there must be a revival of confidence."

Examination for Postmaster at Silver Creek.

July 26.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on the date named above an examination will be held at Richmond as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth class postmaster at Silver Creek, and others as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $245 for the last fiscal year.

Age limit, 21 years and over on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a State where women are declared by statute to be of full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted.

Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the postoffice for which the examination is announced. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application forms and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Silver Creek and the local secretary at Richmond, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington at least seven days before the date of the examination, otherwise it may be impracticable to examine the applicants.

Good Fish Story.

Judge C. A. Hardin, who has been holding court in Lincoln county, spent Saturday and Sunday at home, when he told the Herald a remarkable fish story. Last week he was tackling the finny tribe in the lake at Crab Orchard Springs and captured a pound and a half bass. He put the fish on a long string that reached several feet from the shore, baited his hook with a fresh minnow and flung the line out in the water to tempt a new catch. Then he got a telling example of the gameness of the bass. As he let the line fly the fish he had anchored on the string jumped out of the water, grabbed the bait and the Judge caught the same fish a second time.—Harrodsburg Herald.

The United States is the greatest producer of leaf tobacco in the world, which fact, combined with the high tariff on manufactured tobacco products has the effect of practically prohibiting importation of tobacco, except high-grade cigars from Cuba. The leaf production in the United States amounts to just under a billion pounds valued at $91,500,000. The importations of unmanufactured tobacco amount to $31,000,000. The value of our manufactured products, cigars, cigarettes, chewing tobacco and snuff, is $417,000,000. The value of our exports is about $109,000,000 and of imports about $75,000,000. Americans smoke more than 8,000,000,000 cigars, and nearly 13,000,000,000 cigarettes.

Has the Hustling Cash Store sold so many more goods so far this season than ever before?
Why have Hamilton Bros. at such an early date, had to search the markets for an almost new stock of spring merchandise?
Why do we buy these goods always at bottom prices?

BECAUSE

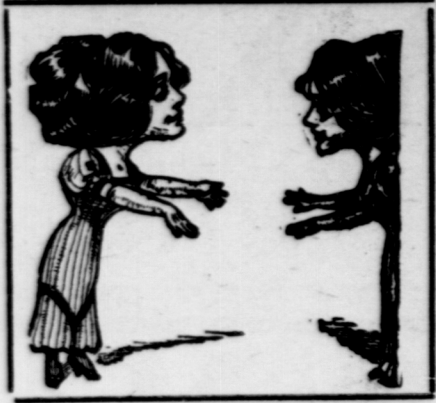

Because we sell for cash and can, of course, pay cash. And by paying spot cash we can get the lowest possible market price
Because we are satisfied with a reasonable profit and MAKE GOOD what we say about every article sold
Because we buy often and keep our stock fresh and new, and extend a courteous invitation and cordial welcome to each and every patron. Therefore

People Looking For Good Quality Materials

PRICE $1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

JUNE 28, 1913

The fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg one of the most decisive in history, is about to be celebrated both by the Confederate and Federal survivors. Like the battle, the celebration is to be on a gigantic scale. Pennsylvania, which has been planning for the celebration four years, has appropriated $150,000 for it and the Federal government $150,000, while nearly all of the States have appropriated money to make the event memorable. Over 50,000 veterans will be in attendance and ample preparations for their entertainment are complete.

In the battle of Gettysburg 160,000 men were engaged. Lee having about 70,000 and Meade 90,000. The Confederate loss was 20,000, the Federal 23,000. It began July 1st, 1863, and lasted three days, resulting in the Confederates being forced to retreat to Southern soil.

It will be an inspiring spectacle to see the remnant of the opposing armies meet and clasp hands over the bloody fields of carnage during the war between the States and it is hoped that no untoward event will occur to mar the important occasion.

THERE WAS a great hullabaloo raised in some quarters when during the reign of the night riders Gov. Wilson announced that he would pardon any man who killed a night rider in defense of his life or property. Now comes Judge Gordon, of the Madisonville circuit court, in a section where the night riders are again very active and vicious, to say in his charge to the grand jury that the man who shot another apprehended in the act of scraping his plant beds would not be tried nor indicted in his court, if the man who did the shooting could find no other way out. We agree both with the then governor and present judge. The man who defends himself on his property against cowardly creatures bent on destroying it is acting in his own necessary self defense and he should be absolved from punishment.

AND now Billy Sunday, the erstwhile base ballist but present evangelist, is bothering President Wilson by calling on him. Wonder if he wants the base ball rules changed or is he after more latitude for his present calling? We hope he hasn't the nerve to ask for anything that will bring him better financial recompense than his present vocation.

SOME jurors have a fine sense of humor. A woman at Nashville went into a barber shop and shot one of the tonsorial artists dead. She was tried for the offense and probably on the idea that he played the parrot act and talked too much, the jury gave her only five days in jail. In other words practically acquitted her and virtually said "served him right."

Narrow Escape.

Mr. Ballard Luxon, traveling salesman for Arnold, Hamilton & Luxon, of Richmond, halted his automobile under a large tree in front of the store at Hyattsville one day last week. While he was there a thunder storm came up and lightning struck the tree above his head, and but for a telephone wire which ran through the tree diverting it, would doubtless have descended and perhaps caused serious damage to the gentleman and his machine.—Lancaster Record. 11

Ashland Paper In Error.

The Ashland Independent was in error when it published that Mr. Jacob Wagers, whose home is in this city, but who for the present is connected with the Bybee Dry Goods Co. at Ashland, and Mrs. Louise Canning, a handsome and popular widow of Huntington, W. Va., had died of and gotten married. At the time the Independent thought Mr. Wagers was enjoying his honeymoon, he was instead visiting the old folks at home. It is now up to the Ashland paper to make a correction.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

Stockton.

The name of Mr. R. C. Stockton for postmaster of Richmond was sent to the Senate yesterday and action taken. Now all there's left to make him postmaster is the swearing in process, but we are not advised when that will occur.

Catching Flies.

It is not a case of "swat the fly" in Richmond but catch the fly instead. Dozens of fly traps are placed around the public squares and the fly catchers seem to be doing a land office business. By the way, the man who invented the trap that is being used here might make a fortune if he would get a patent on it and put it on the market. It is certainly the best fly trap going.

Elder To Put On Big Sale.

E. V. Elder, the West Main street dry goods man, will put on a great bargain-giving sale and his place of business is closed today to make preparations for it. The sale begins in the morning and from our fourth page you can get idea of what he is going to dispose of and the prices he will give. It is a case of war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. Prices with him and the public will be given a splendid opportunity of buying goods at almost any price offered.

The Chautauqua In Full Blast.

Redpath's Chautauqua is in full blast in Richmond and "everybody is doing it," that is everybody is attending its interesting sessions. The big tent on Eastern Normal campus is well filled at each session, morning, afternoon and evening, and all go home pleased. Nearly 1,200 season tickets were sold, which means that the enterprise will be a success financially as well as otherwise. The sessions began Wednesday afternoon when a musical recital by the members of the Redpath Grand Opera Co. was given, which was followed by a lecture on "Culture and Democracy" by George L. McNutt, the "dinner pail" man. In the evening Grand Opera, "The Lovers' Quarrel," was enjoyed. Yesterday was taken up with the organization of Boy Scouts, Weatherwax Brothers' Quartette and a concert by them at night. A great debate was also listened to, in which Hon. Emil Seidel, of Milwaukee, and Hon. J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, took part. The subject debated was "Is Socialism Desirable for the United States?" The question was settled to the satisfaction of all. The Boy Scouts took up this morning and this afternoon the Florence Trio and William Rainey Bennett are the entertainers. The latter is lecturing on "The Man Who Can." Tonight the Ben Greet players will present Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors. On Saturday The Max Trio, Edward Amherst Ott and The Bergen Marx Co. are the entertainers, all of which are good. On Sunday afternoon Bohumir Kryl and his great band will give a sacred concert and in the evening he will give another concert and Dr. E. W. Huestler will preach in the big tent. Hon. Joseph W. Folk is one of the several good attractions for Monday, while Ralph Bingham, the best "one man show" in the country, is in the list of those who will interest Tuesday. To many of our people is due credit for the coming and success of the Chautauqua, but to the guarantors, Messrs. E. W. Barnes, F. M. Stiver, W. G. White, W. S. Broadus, G. E. Lilly, C. C. Wallace, R. R. Burnam, W. B. Smith, J. G. Crabbe and W. E. Blanton the public is especially obligated. They have done a great deal of hard work without even a thought of recompense.

Church Notes

On account of Chautauqua, Eld. E. K. Marshall will not fill his regular appointment for preaching at Mt. Pleasant next Sunday.

MARRIED

Robert Simpson and Miss Mary Singer were united in wedlock's holy bond on Tuesday.

Russell Ralph Benton, aged 18, and Miss Bessie Elizabeth Wells, sweet sixteen, were married in the city on the 26th.

One of the most brilliant weddings ever witnessed in Stanford was that of Miss Josephine Paxton Warren and Mr. Richard A. Asbury at the Presbyterian church at five thirty Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. J. R. Boen, formerly of Madison county, State Evangelist of Texas, arrived in this Wednesday, coming from Texas to officiate at the marriage of his niece, Miss Wilyah Elliott, and Mr. John F. Barron.—Lexington Herald.

J. Travis Pearce and Mrs. Jessie Mc Kinney were united in marriage Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Eld. A. J. Tribble, by that gentleman.

Mr. Pearce is a well known traveling salesman, with home in Mississippi. The bride is well known in this city, where she lives and where she has many friends. She is proprietress of the Madison Hotel.

Transferred to Richmond.

An order transferring Sarah Wall from the Jefferson county jail to the Madison county jail at Richmond was entered in the Federal Court by Judge Walter Evans today on motion of District Attorney George Duffelle, and she will be taken to Richmond next Tuesday, the beginning of the next fiscal year. The woman is under indictment in the Federal Court at Richmond for sending obscene literature through the mails, it being alleged that she wrote several postal cards to John Estes, of Waynesburg, which were of an improper character. She was arrested by Deputy Marshal Lewis Ryans yesterday afternoon and brought to Louisville, she having been located in Casey county just over the line from the Eastern district of the State.—Louisville Times.

They'll Vote on Booze in Jessamine Saturday.

On tomorrow, Saturday, our neighboring county of Jessamine will vote on the proposition of continuing the sale of whisky. Nicholasville is the only wet spot in that county and five or six saloons flourish there like the green bay tree spoken of in holy writ. From various sources we have heard that the drys would win, but a Nicholasville gentleman who called at the Climax office Wednesday told us that things look wet to him and it would not surprise him if the people voted for a continuation of the open saloon by a majority of a hundred or so. However, if we were sportsively inclined our thirty cents would go on the drys.

Fresh Cakes received daily: Marble Yellow, and White. They are good and cheap at the price, 10c. each. D. B. McKinney. 70-11

Burglars Return Fire.

Wagers & Rice's store at Rice's Station, up in Estill county, was the scene of a lively shooting bee Wednesday night. About midnight Charlie Rice, of the firm, heard intruders in the store and fired upon them in the darkness. The burglar, or burglars returned fire and some 12 or 15 shots were exchanged. The darkness was so intense that Mr. Rice could not tell whether his aim was good or not. Any way the scamps were put to flight and very little was taken from the store. The postoffice, which is in the building, did not fare so well, for what money could be found, with the exception of a few nickels and pennies, were stolen. Mrs. W. L. Rice has charge of the office. Entrance to the store was effected by the window and there was some tall scampering to get out of the hole in the wall when Mr. Rice's gun got into action. After things had quieted down a little, Mr. Rice began to use the telephone and while doing this, his pistol fell and discharged, he receiving a slight flesh wound. The gentleman at once called up his partner, Mr. Jonah Wagers, of this city, who in turn called up Milliken, the Lexington bloodhound man, and by 4:30 or 5 o'clock the two gentlemen and the dogs were on the scene. As the thieves had left only about five hours before and their tracks were yet undisturbed, it was thought that the dogs would make a splendid trial, but they did not and the firm was made none the wiser by the expense and trouble of getting the hounds. It is believed that the intruders used some kind of disinfectant on their shoes. At any rate that is the excuse Mr. Milliken gave for his pets not doing better work. We were unable to learn the amount of money taken from Uncle Sam's till.

A Valuable Cow.

R. R. Whitney, who lives near Glasgow, probably owns the most valuable cow in his section, if not in the entire State. The cow in question is a two-year-old Jersey and at present is giving thirty-five pounds of milk per day. She is rather under size, weighing about six hundred pounds. As this is her first calf, she will doubtless surpass this mark within the next two or three years. At her present rate, however, she will give a little over twenty-one times her weight in milk in a year, and make six-tenths times her weight in butter in one year. At twenty cents per gallon, her milk would sell for $638.00 and at twenty-five per pound for the butter, about $365 would be realized.

Delighted Over Col. Walton's Victory.

His host of friends here are rejoicing over Col. W. P. Walton's victory in the libel suit against him tried at London last week. There wasn't a leg for the plaintiff to stand on, and we understand that he could have compromised the case for less than the expense of the trial cost him. However, if there ever was a man who had rather be right than president, Col. Walton is that man, and he determined to fight the case to the last ditch rather than pay what wasn't right. The case grew out of an item published in the State Journal at Frankfort six years ago, when we were connected with it; there was no malice connected with the publication complained of and correction was promptly made. The plaintiff suffered no injury as a result, all of which was made clear to the jury and it did its duty well.—Stanford Interior Journal.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY.

Believing that the interests of our children are the paramount issue in all matters social, educational and political, we citizens of Madison feel it incumbent upon us to make this plea to the voters of our party. As Democrats we glory in the election of Woodrow Wilson, as partisans we take pride in the continued successes of our party, but as fathers, brothers and citizens, we hold much higher and dearer than all these the education and training of the children of our country. The educational funds are all pruned and ready for action, but of far greater importance than these are the implements of the warfare against ignorance, is the selection of the man who shall stand behind them, and wield them with zeal, discretion and knowledge.

Dr. F. Edwards, of College Hill, has been among us from his early boyhood. His farming pursuits, his early training to work, his naturally strong constitution and his regular and correct habits have given him a physical health and strength more than sufficient to cope with the arduous duties of the office for which he is applying. His father was one of the best business managers in our county, and trained his sons to habits of discreet, honest, faithful and correct business principles. His education was studiously and laboriously attained to a marked height of intelligence and culture. Through sixteen years of faithful labor, he has taught our youth with great success and with well deserved appreciation. Ripe experience has taught him the needs of every school in the county, and love of the cause has furnished him with an unbounded zeal and enthusiasm to see those wants supplied. He knows in official capacity, neither rich nor poor, neither high nor low, but deems an education the inherent right of every boy and girl in Kentucky. He would bring to his office besides, a stainless character and a model citizenship.

Finally, his Democracy is without spot and perfect. In the dark days of '96 and '98, when so many of the party became weak kneed and lost faith in the party principles and candidates, going over to our political enemies with their votes and influence, he stood by his party standard with inflexible firmness, and not only voted but worked for those whom so many, now anxious for office, scratched and even repudiated. Citizens, upon such a statement of Mr. Edwards' qualifications, can you refrain from honoring him with your votes and by his election giving to your county a faithful and efficient officer and to your children's future a steadfast friend?
